Hawaiian & Swing Music

Press Kit

BIO

Looking for band that will melt your heart? The Coconut Stompers is a Hawaiian and swing music group based in Saguenay (Canada). Between Waikiki and New-Orleans, they perform good old heartwarming melodies in their own unique style. The colors of the three different guitars combined with the softness and the strenght of the voices, give an unforgettable experience. Don't be surprised if your body suddenly starts swaying from side to side—it's the "coconut effect"!
